Attorney Profile: Christopher C. Quinn, Esq.

"We advocate on behalf of individuals and get them justice."

Areas of Concentration: Medical Malpractice • Dangerous or Defective Products
• Truck and Car Accidents and Unsafe Vehicles

Attorney Christopher C. Quinn is a member of Hourigan, Kluger & Quinn's Personal Injury Team and provides legal counsel to Personal Injury clients throughout Northeastern PA, specializing in product liability, medical malpractice and auto negligence.

Attorney Quinn was born and raised in Clarks Summit, PA. He graduated from the University of Pittsburgh with his Bachelor's Degree in Philosophy and a Minor in Political Science. Attorney Quinn pursued his legal career at Duquesne University School of Law, Pittsburgh, PA. He was selected as a national member of the Order of the Barristers and received the 2016 CourtCall Award for Excellence in Trial Advocacy and the 2016 Shalom Moot Court Award. He is a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

Attorney Quinn served as Law Clerk to the Honorable Terrence R. Nealon where he conducted legal research, edited and evaluated the legal analyses in drafts of written opinions, prepared bench memoranda and attended oral arguments, conferences and trials. Previous to his experience with Judge Nealon, Attorney Quinn served as Law Clerk to HKQLaw where he conducted legal research regarding a variety of evidentiary and civil law issues, drafted internal memoranda, pleadings, motions and discovery requests.

Attorney Christopher Quinn is a current board member and co-founding member of the Cody Jude Barrasse Memorial Foundation. The Foundation endows a full four-year scholarship at Scranton Preparatory School for a deserving student in need. The Foundation also funds grants through an Organ Transplant Assistance Program, which are then given to individuals on an organ transplant waiting list to help defray their costs.

Attorney Christopher Quinn's father, Kevin, is also an attorney at Hourigan, Kluger & Quinn. Christopher and his wife, Anna, reside in Scranton, PA.
